

Guitar Red

Blues Underground Network Reviews Lightnin' in a Bottle

John Vermilyea (Blues Underground Network), July 16, 2008

http://www.bluesundergroundnetwork.com/Guitar_Red_CD.html

Fans of blues music being played the way it was meant to be played, which is raw and real, have someone new on the scene, album wise, to look forward to listening to. Guitar Red delivers good old authentic blues in it's finest, simplest form; one guitar, one clavinet, one bass, and one great old time feel voice. From the opening track, Box Car No.9 to the closing track, Song About A Jimi Hendrix Song, "Lightnin' In A Bottle", thanks to Guitar Red's street wise savvy, delivers a true debut blues masterpiece.